Sharing the Good News

Thoughts from the Vicar:

I am amazed, as we continue through this period of trials, at the number of “God Winks” we encounter. In his book, “When God Winks at You”, Squire Rushnell (sic) defines “God Winks” as “reassurances from your Creator that He is never too busy for any of His children.” In our family, we experienced a God Wink when our son's girlfriend was sitting on a chair outside their home in Portland, Oregon, and got up to use the restroom. Seconds after she got up, a tree in the backyard fell on the chair. She could have been killed if not for the “God wink”. This Sunday is Food Pantry Sunday. The above scripture from Psalm 78 is from this Sunday's appointed liturgy. And the Gospel for this Sunday? The Feeding of the 5,000.

In the sermon, we will find out that the Roman occupiers had little concern for the hungry masses in the Roman Empire. Jesus' followers struggled for food on a daily basis, which makes the miracle of the fishes and the loaves even more meaningful, knowing that it showed the Jews that it was God's will to feed the hungry and God's promise that in the coming age there would be no more hunger. Working as God's “hands” on earth, we can help to make His promise come to fruition.

RIP, Maryanne Hubbert. Maryanne Hubbert, the mother of Debbie Brown, will be laid to rest this coming Tuesday, August 4, in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada. For the past two weeks, Debbie has been quarantining in Hamilton so that she can attend the burial. When she returns to Springfield next week, she will have to face another two weeks of quarantine. Please keep Debbie, her brother Steve, and their families in your prayers during their difficult time.

Continued schedule change: I am still not going to Holly Brook and South Park. My office hours at church have reverted to 10 AM to 1 PM on Wednesdays; I will still not be going to the church on Thursdays. However, I am available by appointment to anyone who needs to see me or to talk to me. My contact information is on the front page.

Outreach – This Sunday, August 2, is Food Pantry Sunday. We will be blessing our donations at Sunday's service before the food is delivered to the local food pantry. If you wish to make a donation, please contribute humbly and lovingly so we will have a good amount to donate this month.
